Our Ref: FOI 2472

Thank you for your request concerning serious incidents and deaths of patients with a learning disability.

Your request has been considered and processed in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000.

Please see attached spreadsheet for responses, please read caveat below:

- Only service users under our care are included
- Trust service users who died at a residential/nursing home/hospice not owned/managed by the Trust are excluded
- Community services users who died on an acute hospital ward not owned/managed by the Trust (with the exception of self-harm) are excluded
- Differences in number of deaths reported to NRLS and numbers reported on STEIS is due to deaths receiving non-suicide conclusions at inquest – either the inquest occurred before the death was reported to NRLS or we were able to remove the incident from NRLS prior to publication

Should you require further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Please find enclosed an information sheet regarding copyright protection and the Trust's complaints procedure in the event that you are not satisfied with the response.

Yours sincerely
