

At present there is no clear process in place for how we contact Public Health Officers or Police to be supported with this legislation. When this is available it will be circulated.

For further advice or to discuss individual cases please contact your Mental Health Legislation department in the first instance.

Released under Freedom of Information Act